A Good Hair-Food

Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, is a genuine hair-food. It feeds, nourishes, builds up, strengthens, invigorates. The hair grows more rapidly, keeps soft and smooth, and all dandruff disappears. Aid nature a little. Give your hair a good hair-food.

Does not change the color of the hair.

Formula with each bottle. Show it to your doctor. Ask him about it, then do as he says.

You need not hesitate about using this new Hair Vigor from any fear of its changing the color of your hair. The new Ayer's Hair Vigor prevents premature grayness, but does not change the color of the hair even to the slightest degree.

PERT PARAGRAPHS

Picked Up At Pike, Paint and Prestonsburg.

The many friends of Miss Lentle Litteral were very much surprised, to learn that she and Joseph Cantrill had eloped and were married.

Out of ninety-five applicants who took the teachers' examination at Pikeville, only seventeen received certificates. This is by far the greatest percentage of failures we have ever known in Pike county.

A number of workmen passed up last week to work on the Elkhorn City bridge. The work will soon be commenced and a new iron bridge will connect Elkhorn City with the outside world. This may mean a further extension of the C. and O. railroad.

Sergeant J. K. Dooley, a small mining town east of here, was visited by a disastrous conflagration, sweeping the entire business district. Loss, $40,000, partially insured. Mrs. Patrick Snodgrass, a sleek woman, was carried from her burning home just in the nick of time. She is now in a precarious condition and will die.

The court, Judge Nunn writing, reversed judgment of the Magoffin Circuit Court in a case of Leander Kline, against the Commonwealth, and remanded for new trial under instructions. The appellant was convicted of manslaughter in the killing of one Wainle Arnett and sentenced to five years' imprisonment.

Pain'sville, Ky., June 8. — Dennis Smith was sentenced to-day to one year in the pen for obtaining false testimony in court. In April, when a prisoner unlocked the jail door and walked out, he invited Smith to go with him, but the latter stayed, saying he was innocent, and would come clear.

John F. Butler, Commonwealth's Attorney, has brought suit against the Land Grant Company for forfeiture of title, under the Revenue Act of 1906, of all lands claimed by it in Pike county. The object of the suit is to remove the land grant cloud from the people's titles and forever bury the old Virginia grant. Similar suits have been brought in Letcher, Floyd and Knott counties.

Cyclone at Catlettsburg.

The severest storm in the history of that section passed over Catlettsburg from west to east between 1 and 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. Hail as large as walnuts fell for fifteen minutes and so thickly that one could not see half a square. Following the hail, rain fell in torrents and the streets were flooded curb deep, the hail drifting in places three feet high.

Houses were unroofed, church steeples, smokestacks, and trees, blown down. One new house, upon completion, was turned over. After the storm had spent its fury the streets were strewn with debris of all kinds. The stacks of the electric light station were blown down and falling through the roof disabled the machinery, and the city was in darkness.

The courthouse was partly unroofed. The steamer Canoe, lying at the local wharf, was overturned by the wind and went down the river on its side. One man, the watchman on the Canoe, is reported missing, and probably has been drowned.

The H. Krish Company, wholesale dry goods, Sam Rosenthal, owner of the Beehive store, the H. H. Carpenter Company, Robert McElroy, photographer, John C. Hogan, druggist, and the Z. Meek Company, grain dealers are the heaviest losers, $900 as reported.

Mrs. Rosenthal, wife of the proprietor of the Beehive store, was in the building during the storm. She fainted from fright, and is at the Alger House still unconscious.

At the York House, where two timber men are lodging, the roof was cut full of holes and the second and third floors were flooded.

Patton Brothers, wholesale druggists and glaziers, wired an order to Cincinnati for $5,000 worth of glass to supply the demand.

A. B. Priest, prominent timber dealer of Martin county, has a tract of three hundred acres of land on Wolf creek, from which he will get over thirty-three hundred logs of merchantable size. On this tract he brought to market eight rafters of about one hundred logs each. Mr. Priest tells of one of the biggest deals in timber ever made in this section of the state. Men are now on the ground measuring and counting the trees on a tract of land containing 8,000 acres and the price to be paid for it will be in the neighborhood of $65,000. The land formerly belonged to a Mr. Ganjot, of Williamson, but according to Mr. Priest's information it now belongs to some company.

Mr. Jerry Bartram, of Port Hay, went to Charleston with his son Edgar Wednesday of last week to have him treated for the bite of a dog which is supposed to be mad. A party there owns a rhesus which was brought from India in 1773, and it has been successfully applied. In two hundred and eighteen cases the stone was applied to the wound on Edgar's hand on Thursday at noon, and it adhered until Saturday morning at nine o'clock.

Mr. Bartram will be glad to give anyone interested all the information he can concerning the stone or treatment.

All mail in the United States will be weighed for a period of six months beginning July 1st and will also be classified. This is done to secure data from which to make contracts with the railroads for the carrying of mail. This will entail a very large amount of extra work on the postal officials. GUNNELL'S OLD STAND.

OUR WEST VIRGINIA NEIGHBORS.

The W. M. Ritter Lumber Company, of Mahan, W. Va., with several of its employes, has been indicted by the Federal grand jury at Charleston on the charge of peonage.

The supreme court of West Virginia has decided that the charters of the town of Pt. Pleasant gives the council the right to grant liquor licenses regardless of the wishes of the county court in the matter. When the news was received in that town, an exchange says bells were rung, cannons boomed, parades were formed and there was all sorts of rejoicing.

Marlinton, W. Va., June 7 For the seizure and repeated assault of Miss Ona Bird, daughter of Judge Bird, when she was eloping with Arnold Gladwell, while the helpless lover peered into the barrel of a revolver, Warwick Ratcliff, accused with Albert Gay, was sentenced to-day to serve 20 years in prison. The jury had recommended mercy. Gay will be placed on trial within a few days.

Gladwell and his sweetheart had stopped at the cabin of Gay and Ratcliff for shelter when fleeing from her home to be wedded in Virginia. There the fiendish assaults were committed. Gladwell finally escaped and summoned a resorting party. When they reached the cabin the girl was on her knees begging for mercy. Ratcliff was holding a revolver at her temple.

New York, June 7.—There is a romance attached to the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Kenna, of Charleston, W. Va., a bride and bridegroom of a few days, who are stopping at the Waldorf-Astoria.

Mr. Kenna is a son of the late United States Senator Kenna, of West Virginia, and he married Miss Gertrude Higgins in St. Joseph's Church in Washington Wednesday, coming to New York on their way to the Jamestown Exposition for their honeymoon.

The wedding grew out of a boy and girl romance which began before the death of the Senator several years ago, when young Kenna was but 15 years old. When the Senator died his son put on overalls and went to work to learn the railroad business with which his father had been connected. He worked hard and in the meantime he kept in touch with his child sweetheart, who encouraged him in his work. After five years of work he felt in a position to ask her to marry him.

A. S. White, of the Columbia Gas Company, was greatly pleased over the following dispatch. W. T. Hunter is the general manager at the New York headquarters, while Enslow is Superintendent of the new gas fields, with headquarters at Huntington, W. Va. Twenty-three wells are now in full operation in the 250,000-acre field, and work is progressing on seven more. The strike gives excellent promise of the strength of the wells yet to be opened.

"New York, June 7, 1907.
"A. S. White Sinton Hotel, Cincinnati, Ohio: Enslow wires that our first well on the Riley property is a good oil producer. He has been offered $50,000 for it. He expects a big producer in the second well. My strike hit Indian sand Monday. Allen reports Guyandotte and Lincoln wells in first-class shape. Wells already in have open flow of 100,000-600 cubic feet per day."
"W. T. Hunter."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney and Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

THE ORIGINAL POHO'S PLASTER.

It's Allcock's, first introduced to the people sixty years ago, and to-day undoubtedly has the largest sale of any external remedy—millions being sold annually throughout the whole civilized world. There have been one to even compare with Allcock's—the world's standard external remedy.

For a week back, cold on the chest or any local pain, the result of taking cold or overstrain, there's nothing we know of to compare with this famous plaster.

Can't Miss It

So many ailments are purely nervous affections, that you can hardly miss it if you try Dr. Miles' Nervine. It restores nervous energy—and through its invigorating influence upon the nervous system, the organs are strengthened. The heart action is better; digestion improved, the sluggish condition overcome, and healthy activity re-established.

"Dr. Miles' Nervine is worth its weight in gold to me. I did not know what ailed me. I had a good physician but got no relief. I could not eat, sleep, work, sit or stand. I was nearly crazy. One day I picked up a paper and the first thing that met my eyes was an advertisement of Dr. Miles' Nervine. I concluded to try it and let the doctor go, and I did so. After taking two bottles I could rest myself. Then I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and now I can work and go out, and have told many the best I have received from these remedies and several of them have been cured by it since. I am fifty-nine years old and pretty good yet."

ANNA R. PALMER, Lewistown, Pa.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.
